FROM OTHER PENCILS.

Japan has taxed the Czar $25,000,000 for taking care of the Russian prisoners. Whatever the Japanese may lack in diplomatic skill they fully make up in financial acumen.—Salinas Index.

An average clubwoman's family includes five and three-tenths persons. The three-tenths? Well, anybody ought to know who that is.—Chicago News.

Dr. Lyman Abbot has struck a blow at Indiana by saying that there are no Scots, Thackerays and Dickens writing now.—Minneapolis Journal.

Now that J. Pierpont Morgan has been pinched at his own game will he, in intimation of Tom Lawson, write a series of magazine articles holding up Zimmerman to public scorn.—Chicago News.

A vein of petrified honey has been found in a canyon near Gallup, N. M. It will become quite valuable if a waffle quarry can be located as an extension.—Grass Valley Union.

Occasionally Count Witte must look back longingly upon those strenuous days at Portsmouth.—Detroit Free Press.

A record breaking slaughter of Maine deer is reported for this season. The mortality among the hunters and guides is not disclosed.

Still, the fact that the foreign engineers want a sea-level canal would carry more weight if the foreign governments had to foot the bills.—Chicago News.

It stands to reason that the man who objects to having ballot boxes reopened is the man who expects to be hurt by the exposure of their contents.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Pittsburg is vindicating her reputation as the home of fine luxury. Two marriage scandals among her wealthiest in one day shows how she is getting along.—New York Evening Post.

John D. Rockefeller has not yet been subpoenaed, but Henry H. Rogers will doubtless be able to give enough misinformation for them both.—Kansas City Star.

Before outlining national platform for the next Presidential campaign, we might wait to see what Congress does to the railroads.—Chicago News.

Retail prices of meat are five cents higher in Germany than they were a year ago. Prosperity must be getting a fine foothold in that country.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Many Russians now propose a dictator, apparently as a cure for the situation in which everybody is refusing to submit to persuasion—let alone dictation.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

We are selling three pounds of mixed nuts for 50 cents, all fresh and the best. Davey & Maish.

TOURIST EXCURSION PARTIES TO THE EAST.

Over the Scenic Line of the World.

If you are going east and want to save money, yet travel with pleasure and comfort, it will pay you to invest our personally conducted tourist excursions. The parties are in charge of a Manager who accompanies the cars through to St. Louis, Chicago and the Atlantic Coast and gives his personal attention to the welfare of each passenger in his charge. The schedules are arranged so you pass through the world-famed scenery on the Denver and Rio Grande Railroad by daylight. Open-top Observation cars (something entirely new) are free to all passengers. Let us know where you are going and we will be glad to give you full information about your trip, the lowest rates of fare and send you free of charge some handsome illustrated books of travel.
